

Touch More Lives Through the Hands of Students: Become an FNU Preceptor

FRONTIER NURSING
UNIVERSITY®

FRONTIER NURSING
UNIVERSITY®

P.O. Box 528 • 195 School Street

Hyden, KY 41749

FNU@frontier.edu • 606.672.2312

Frontier.edu/preceptor

Answer the call.

Accreditation

Frontier Nursing University (FNU) is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools to award master's degrees and doctoral degrees. Contact the Commission on Colleges at 1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia 30033-4097 or call 404-679-4500 for questions about accreditation of FNU.

Frontier Nursing University is licensed by the Kentucky Council of Postsecondary Education (1024 Capital Center Drive, Suite 320, Frankfort, KY 40601; Tel: 502-573-1555) to offer a Doctor of Nursing Practice degree and both certificates and a Master of Science in Nursing (MSN) for nurse-midwifery, family nurse practitioner, women's health care nurse practitioner specialties and psychiatric-mental health nurse practitioner specialties.

The nurse-midwifery post-graduate certificate program and master's program and doctor of nursing practice degree are accredited by the Accreditation Commission for Midwifery Education (ACME) , 8403 Colesville Road, Suite 1550, Silver Spring, MD 20910-6374; Tel: 240-485-1802, www.midwife.org/acme, <http://www.midwife.org/acme>, acme@ACNM.org

The Doctor of Nursing Practice, the Master of Science in Nursing program and the post-graduate certificates, including the nurse-midwifery, family nurse practitioner, psychiatric mental health nurse practitioner, and women's health care nurse practitioner tracks are accredited by the Accreditation Commission for Education in Nursing (ACEN).

Accreditation Commission for Education in Nursing (ACEN)

3343 Peachtree Road, Suite 850

Atlanta, GA 30326

404-975-5000

www.acenursing.org

Touch More Lives Through the Hands of Students: Become an FNU Preceptor

Frontier.edu

Why become a preceptor for FNU students?

- Promote your profession through the education and guidance of your future peers
- Help expand access to quality, compassionate care, to rural and underserved populations
- Earn an honorarium based on the percentage of time spent precepting students
- Gain access to FREE CEUs including sessions on pharmacology and other exciting topics.
- Receive support throughout the precepting process from clinical faculty located in your region
- Participate in free online training courses for new and experienced preceptors - "The Gift of Precepting" and "The Master Preceptor" (.2 CEUs each)
- Access the latest clinical guidelines in order to stay current in practice
- Earn a 10% discount on all non-matriculating courses at FNU
- Obtain documentation of hours spent precepting for recertification purposes
- Become a part of the Frontier community and our rich legacy

Ready to become a preceptor?

FNU Preceptor Qualifications:

- National certification in specialty area
- At least one year of relevant experience in an advanced practice role
- Master's Degree or higher in nursing related field (we do allow Post-Bac for Midwives, but an MSN is preferred)
- MDs and DOs (for our FNP students only, and only up to 40% of their clinical time)

Are you interested in learning more about becoming a preceptor for FNU students?

Please visit frontier.edu/preceptor and fill out the request form to get the process started today!

"And you think to yourself, 'I'm not that person.' But you are that person. You just have to step out there and do it."

Susan Clapp, CNM and FNU alumna and preceptor

"I have learned so much more than skills... I am learning true patient-centered care,"

DNP student Michele Gragg, CNM on working with preceptor Cheyenne Brown, APRN, CNM

"Susy guides her students in understanding why they are performing each plan of care... teaches her students how to form strong bonds with their patients"

FNU alumna Beth Morrell on learning from her preceptor Susy Furr, FNP.

"Ellen provided encouragement, nudges, laughs, and advice while smoothing out my rough student midwife edges. She was a sister, friend, teacher and peer knowing when to wear what hat in any given moment"

FNU student Tiffani Hughson on learning from preceptor Ellen Solis, DNP, CNM

About Frontier Nursing University

Frontier Nursing University is a graduate school of nursing offering community-based, distance education programs leading to the Doctor of Nursing Practice degree, the Master of Science in Nursing Degree and/or post-graduate certificates in advanced practice nursing specialties. These specialties include Nurse-Midwife, Family Nurse Practitioner, Women's Health Care Nurse Practitioner and Psychiatric-Mental Health Nurse Practitioner.

Our mission is to provide accessible nurse-midwifery and nurse practitioner education to prepare competent, entrepreneurial, ethical and compassionate leaders in primary care to serve all individuals with an emphasis on women and families in diverse, rural, and underserved populations.

Today, we can proudly claim the following...

- 80 years of experience in graduate nursing and midwifery education
- Largest and longest continually operating nurse-midwifery program in the U.S.
- First family nurse practitioner program in the U.S.
- Pioneered the first distance midwifery program in the U.S. in 1989
- Nationally and regionally accredited
- More than 6,000 nurses and midwives have graduated with advanced practice degrees
- Students and alumni represent every U.S. state and many foreign countries