Faculty

Petar M. Leonard, CLE Committee Member, is an attorney with Pastori Krans, PLLC in Concord, NH where he focuses on family law and other domestic relations issues. Originally from Oregon, Petar earned his B.A. in French from the University of Oregon; and his J.D. from the University of New Hampshire School of Law, where he graduated from the school's Daniel Webster Scholar Honors Program. He continues to be involved in the Daniel Webster Scholar Honors Program as an adjunct professor in family Law. Petar is a member of the New Hampshire Bar Association, and was recently elected as the NHBA's Family Law Section chair. He is also a certified practitioner of collaborative law, and is admitted to practice before the United States District Court for the District of New Hampshire. Petar authored the article "A Review of Family Division Rule 1.25-A in Action," and co-authored the articles "Defining 'Gross Income' for Child Support Calculations Presents Challenges" in 2013 and "De Facto Divorce? Potential Limitations of Postnuptial Agreements" with Attorney Heather Krans, for NH Bar News.

Tracey G. Cote is a shareholder and director with Shaheen & Gordon in Concord, NH where she concentrates her practice on divorce and family law. Tracey serves on the Management Committee for Shaheen & Gordon and is the chair of the firm's Domestic Relations Practice Group. Tracey represents clients statewide in all aspects of domestic relations, including divorce, collaborative divorce, the valuation and division of assets including businesses, trust interests, and real estate, parental rights and responsibilities, post-divorce modifications of child support and alimony, and interstate custody and child support. She is a graduate of Dartmouth College and the University of Maryland School of Law. Tracey practiced law as a tax attorney at McGuireWoods LLP and Ropes & Gray before joining Shaheen & Gordon. Prior to that, she was a law clerk for Judge Frances Murnaghan of the US Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit. Tracey is a member of the Virginia and NH Bar Associations, and is admitted to practice before the US Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit and the US District Court-NH. In addition, she is a member of the NHBA's Family Law Section, the NH Women's Bar Association and the Collaborative Law Alliance of NH.

James V. Ferro, Jr. is an attorney and certified marital mediator. He is the owner of Ferro Law & Mediation Group, PLLC in Manchester, NH where he concentrates his practice on family law and private mediation for cases involving domestic relations, probate, real estate, personal injury and small business. He earned his B.A. from the University of Vermont in 1989 and his J.D. from UNH School of Law in 1994. Jim is a member of the NHBA's Family Law and Alternative Dispute Resolution Sections, as well as the Rhode Island Bar Association. He is a trustee for the Granite YMCA. Jim co-authored the Mediation Section of MCLE's A Practical Guide to Divorce in NH and regularly teaches at the mediation certification program required for new mediators.

Ellen M. Joseph is a solo practitioner at the Law Offices of Ellen M. Joseph in Manchester, NH focusing on matrimonial law exclusively. Ellen obtained her undergraduate degree from New Hampshire College (SNHU) in 1988 and her J.D. from Suffolk University Law School in 1991. Following law school, she began her career at Wiggin & Nourie, P.A. She opened and managed her own law office from 2001 to 2003, following which she returned to Wiggin & Nourie. Since 2012, Ellen has continued her family law practice including complex financial matters and high conflict parenting disputes. Her practice extends throughout all of New Hampshire. Ellen has been a fellow in the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers since 2005. She is also a member of the NHBA's Family Law Section.

Margaret R. Kerouac is a director at Orr & Reno, PA in Concord, NH. Margie represents clients with substantial net worth, complex marital estates, businesses, professional practices, trust interests and diverse real estate holdings. She handles a variety of disputes relating to divorce, parenting rights, property valuation and division, support, modification and many other matters. Prior to joining Orr & Reno, Margie was a director in the litigation department at McLane Middleton, Professional Association in Manchester, NH. She earned her law degree from Suffolk University Law School in 2000. Margie is a current member (former chair and co-chair) of the NHBA's Family Law Section. She is a member of several associations and groups, including the Collaborative Law Alliance; the International Association of Collaborative Professionals; the NH Association for Justice (formerly on its Board of Governors); the ABA; and the NH Women's Bar (formerly on its Board of Directors). Margie was also a founding member of two collaborative law practice groups and the New Hampshire chapter of the American Academy for Certified Financial Litigators. She has authored many articles on family law topics and has been a panelist for several continuing education seminars.

Heather E. Krans is an attorney at Pastori Krans, PLLC in Concord, NH where she concentrates her practice in the area of family law. She earned her B.A. from the University of Vermont in 1994 and her J.D., with distinction, from Emory University School of Law in 1997. Heather is a member of the New Hampshire Women's Bar Association, where she served as president from 2004-2006. She is currently vice chair of the Professional Conduct Committee. She is also a member of the American Bar Association, the Massachusetts Bar, and is a former chair (current member) of the NHBA's Family Law Section. In 2014, Heather was the recipient of the NHBA's Phillip S. Hollman Gender Equality Award. She has given numerous presentations on family law issues as a guest lecturer at the University of New Hampshire, and as a panelist for CLE seminars.

Hon. Henrietta W. Luneau has been a full time Circuit Court judge since 2016. She is currently assigned to the Lebanon and the Concord Circuit Courts. Prior to serving as a judge, she was a full time marital master for nine years, serving in Rockingham, Sullivan, Grafton, Merrimack and Strafford Counties. From 1994 to 2007, Judge Luneau was an attorney in private practice representing parents and children in family law cases for Janet DeVito PLLC and Burns Law PLLC offices in Concord. Judge Luneau earned her B.A. from Wellesley College in 1988, her J.D. from Franklin Pierce Law Center (now UNH School of Law) in 1993, and her LL.M. from Boston University in 2001.

Crystal M. Maldonado is an attorney with Bianco Professional Association in Concord, NH where she focuses her practice on family law. She earned her B.A. from Stonehill College in 2005 and her J.D. from Franklin Pierce Law Center (now UNH School of Law) in 2008. During law school, she was one of the first members of the Daniel Webster Scholar Honors Program, a two year bar practicum. Crystal continues to be involved with UNH School of Law, as an adjunct faculty member of family law for the Daniel Webster Scholar program. Crystal is a member of the NHBA's Family Law Section, and is admitted to practice before the U.S. District Court for the District of NH. She is also the president of the board of the Friends of Merrimack County Child Advocacy Center.

Virginia A. Martin is the NH Bar Association's associate executive director for legal services, which includes the Pro Bono Referral Program, Lawyer Referral Service and Modest Means Legal Program. She was previously employed at New Hampshire Legal Assistance as director of staff and resource development. As past president of the National Association of Pro Bono Professionals, Ginny accepted an ABA award of special recognition on behalf of the group. She has served on the ABA's Pro Bono Standards Review Workgroup, the federal Legal Services Corporation's Pro Bono Taskforce and the ABA's Pro Bono Summit. She is a frequent presenter at the annual national Equal Justice Conference, including training for new pro bono coordinators. Ginny is also a member of the NH Supreme Court's Access to Justice Commission. A graduate of the University of New Hampshire, she holds a master's degree from Stanford University.

Katherine J. Morneau is the owner and principal attorney at the Law Office of Katherine J. Morneau, PLLC, a seven-member law firm in Nashua, NH. She has been practicing family law since 2006 and opened her firm in 2012. Kate earned her B.A. in criminal justice from Franklin Pierce University and her J.D. from Franklin Pierce Law Center (now UNH School of Law). Kate handles primarily family law cases but also estate planning and administration. Collaborative divorce has been a growing area of Kate's practice. She is a co-chair of the New Hampshire Collaborative Law Alliance and a member of its Public Education Committee, hosting the Nashua Area Practice Group meetings and handling the organization newsletter. Kate is a long time member of the NH Women's Bar Association as well as the Nashua Bar Association. She was selected as the 2016 Rising Star's Young Professional of the Year from Stay Work Play New Hampshire.

Catherine E. Shanelaris is a founding member and partner with Shanelaris & Schirch, PLLC in Nashua, NH where she concentrates her practice on divorce, child support, parenting and guardianship matters. She is also a trained marital mediator. Cathy earned her B.A. from the University of New Hampshire and her J.D. from Franklin Pierce Law Center (now UNH School of Law) in 1992. She is a member of the NHBA's Family Law Section; the NHBA's Pro Bono Governing Board; and the Nashua Bar and Women's Bar Associations. Cathy was appointed by the New Hampshire Supreme Court to the Access to Justice Commission and the Commission on the New Hampshire Bar in the 21st Century. She is the Hillsborough County-South Governor for the New Hampshire Bar Association's Board of Governors. Cathy was appointed by Governor Hassan to the New Hampshire Board of Psychologists as its public board member. She is a New Hampshire Bar Foundation fellow. Cathy has previously served as a Hillsborough-South representative for the New Hampshire Women's Bar Association, and county governor for the New Hampshire Association for Justice. She was formerly the chief staff attorney for the New Hampshire Division of Child Support Services. Cathy is a frequent lecturer on family law topics at continuing legal education programs and the author of several NH Bar Journal and legal articles relating to family law issues.
