Faculty

Peter E. Hutchins, Program Chair/CLE Committee Member practices plaintiff personal injury litigation at the Law Offices of Peter E. Hutchins in Manchester, NH. He graduated from Dartmouth College in 1980 and earned his law degree from Boston College Law School in 1983. Peter currently serves as the NHBA's treasurer. He was the NHBA's president from 2001-02, and served as the NHBA Board of Governors' secretary for many years. Peter is a frequent lecturer and moderator at CLE programs on litigation topics, including the NHBA's Practical Skills program for new admittees.

Doreen F. Connor is a shareholder in the Manchester office of Primmer Piper Eggleston & Cramer, PC. Forty percent of her practice is devoted to appellate work in the areas of insurance, tort, commercial litigation and domestic relations. She has handled in excess of 175 Supreme Court appeals and presented more than 60 oral arguments to the Supreme Court. Doreen also has an active insurance coverage and defense trial practice. She earned her B.A. at Bates College in 1983 and her J.D. at the University of Maine School of Law in 1986. Doreen has been admitted to the American Academy of Appellate Lawyers and American College of Coverage and Extracontractual Counsel. She is a member of the New Hampshire Board of Bar Examiners, the First Circuit Advisory Committee on Rules, the NHBA Insurance Agency Board and the NH Supreme Court Society Board. She is licensed in New Hampshire, Maine and Vermont. Her community service includes work as the chair of the Henniker Zoning Board of Adjustment, treasurer of the Pats Peak Educational Foundation and White Mt. Regional Pony Club.

Dennis T. Ducharme is the founder and principal of Ducharme Resolutions, PLLC in Manchester, NH where he has focused on ADR and litigation for both plaintiffs and defendants since 2012. Prior to that he spent 26 years in a large New Hampshire firm as a litigator and mediator. Dennis is a 1982 graduate of The Massachusetts College of Liberal Arts, and a 1985 graduate of Georgetown University Law School. He has tried over 150 jury trials to conclusion, and resolved thousands of cases as a litigant and mediator. Dennis is a frequent presenter on issues relevant to civil trial practice, including evidence, trial tactics, procedure, torts, insurance and mediation. He is a past adjunct professor of advanced trial advocacy at UNH Law School.

Jennifer A. Farrell joined the Law Office of David C. Dunn, PA in Manchester, NH in 2010 as a general practitioner, with a focus on litigation. She graduated from the University of New Hampshire School of Law and has been an attorney for 20 years. Jennifer has held positions in legislative, corporate, healthcare, and non-profit settings. She was the executive director of the New Hampshire Association for Justice from 2001 – 2008. As the executive director of NHAJ, Jennifer travelled to New York City and Chicago to testify before the National Conference of Insurance Legislators in regard to Medical Payments Insurance. She worked with legislators on a local level as well, and was a panelist at the NHAJ Annual Meeting Insurance CLE in 2011. In addition to being a member of the NHBA and NHAJ, she is also a member of the NH Women's Bar Association and is a 2008 graduate of Leadership New Hampshire. She is also a co-author of "Women Attorneys In New Hampshire: A Changing Perspective", published in NH Bar Journal, Summer 2010.

Tamara Smith Holtslag, Chair of the NHBA's Insurance Law Section, is a partner in the litigation department at Peabody & Arnold, LLP in Boston, MA. Over the last 20 years, Tamara has focused her practice and achieved success on complex insurance coverage litigation; advising clients on insurance coverage and best claims handling practices; as well as defending clients against professional liability and other types of claims. Tamara earned her B.A. from the University of New Hampshire in 1993 and her J.D. from Suffolk University Law School in 1996. She is a fellow of the Litigation Counsel of America (LCA), an invitation-only trial lawyer honorary society that is limited to 3,500 fellows, representing less than one-half of one percent of American lawyers. In 2009, Tamara was also recognized as a Top Young Professional Under 40 in The New England Business Bulletin. She regularly appears in the courts of MA and NH, most often representing her clients in insurance coverage litigation matters. Tamara is the founder and first chair of the NHBA's Insurance Law Section, which formed in 2013. She is a frequent presenter on insurance issues.

Elizabeth L. Hurley is a partner at Getman, Stacey, Schulthess, Steere & Poulin, P.A. in Manchester, NH where she is a litigator with a concentration in construction defect and injury cases and the defense of government entities. She also handles a wide variety of insurance defense and personal injury matters. She has previously lectured on a broad range of topics within her areas of practice, including the Medicare Secondary Payer Act; insurance and indemnification; medical records and discovery. Elizabeth earned her undergraduate degree from the University of New Hampshire in 1992 and her law degree from the University of Richmond, T.C. Williams School of Law in 1995. She is currently licensed in the state and federal courts of New Hampshire and Maine, as well as the First Circuit Court of Appeals, where she successfully argued the principal case regarding Rule 68 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the "Offer of Judgment" rule. Elizabeth is a member and former president of the Tri-State Defense Lawyers Association. She also serves on the NHBA's Committee on Cooperation with the Courts and is a member of the Daniel Webster Batchelder American Inn of Court.

Roger D. Turgeon is an attorney with Turgeon & Associates in Haverhill, MA. He has been specializing in representing injured plaintiffs since he graduated from Harvard Law School in 1980. Roger spent several years with major Boston law firms and two smaller suburban firms before establishing Turgeon & Associates in late 1999. He is a governor-at-large of the New Hampshire Association for Justice and is a frequent presenter at Trial Practice CLEs for that organization and others; he has a special interest in the psychological factors that affect juror decision-making. He practices regularly in Massachusetts and New Hampshire, and is also licensed in Maine. He has the distinction of having won the largest wrongful death verdict ever in the State of New Hampshire, which was 5.3 million dollars.
