

Continuing Legal Education

AI and Legal Ethics: A Risk-Benefit Analysis 2025
(AI & The Law: 2025 Update Series – Part Three)
*Offered by Webinar for MCLE Credit*
Thursday, March 27, 2025

Agenda

12:00 p.m. – 1:00 p.m.

- Overview of the Ethical Issues AI Presents
- AI Legal Services on the Market
- Discussion of the Applicable Rules
  - D.C. Rule of Prof'l Conduct R. 1.1 (mandating that lawyers be competent in relevant technology)
  - D.C. Rule of Prof'l Conduct R. 5.3 (requiring attorneys supervise those who report to them)
  - D.C. Rule of Prof'l Conduct R. 1.5 (attorneys' fees must be reasonable)
  - D.C. Rule of Prof'l Conduct R. 1.6 (requiring attorneys to keep client confidences)
  - D.C. Rule of Prof'l Conduct R. 7.1 (prohibiting false and misleading statements in advertising)
  - D.C. Rule of Prof'l Conduct R. 1.4 (providing standards governing how often and about what lawyers must communicate with their clients)
  - D.C. Rule of Prof'l Conduct R. 1.15 (providing guidance for the preservation of a client's file)
  - D.C. Rule of Prof'l Conduct R. 8.3 (imposing a limited obligation to report misconduct)
- Practical Guidance about How You Can Comply with Your Ethical Obligations While Reaping the Benefits of AI